Working Together – I grew up on a dairy farm in Richfield, WI. Most of you know that. Actually, I now live on the same farm that I grew up on. I have always appreciated growing up on a farm and all the lessons that came along with that.

When we were growing up, we always worked together. No matter what needed to be done, we always helped each other. There were seven of us: my Mom and Dad, one sister and three brothers, all siblings younger than me. To this day, if any one of us needs help, we all will drop whatever we are doing and help the person out.

Farming is a lot of work. No farmer can do it alone. That's why there were community barn raisings and threshing parties. All the neighbors would help one farmer and then move on to help the next. Community work projects of any kind are very valuable on many levels and should be treasured wherever and whenever they occur.

In the three years that I have been here at St. Catherine (and now, starting my fourth), I find that our parish community is much like my experience growing up on the farm. Whenever there is a need, there always are people who come forward to help . . . and working together is something we as a parish community value.

I have been thinking about this lately in regard to servers. Three of our servers will no longer be serving for one reason or another, Joe Rosing, Alyssa Schmirler, and Alanna Etzel. Thanks to them for their service. And I would like to introduce three new servers, Gabrielle Sparapani, Ben Watkins, and Brian Brunmeier. Welcome aboard and thanks for your willingness to help.

Jim Stout
Director of Liturgy & Music

FROM THE DESK OF THE PARISH DIRECTOR

If all has gone as planned this past week, you are hearing our new sound system today. Work began this past Tuesday and was expected to take two to three days. I'd like to again thank all our contributors. This is the second major project of the Faith in Our Future campaign that we have been able to complete, the first being our church roof. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

We're going to be doing another parish pictorial directory with Olan Mills. Photos will be taken August 30 through September 14. I'm hoping that a large number of parishioners will take advantage of this opportunity. It's such a wonderful resource for the community. I use the old one often to match faces and names. It was especially helpful to me the first year I was here. But too often I've gone to the book and haven't found who I was looking for because they didn't have their picture taken. It's not only a great resource for me and the staff, but for all of you. People are sometimes surprised that I know as many of you by name that I do. But I am equally surprised when parishioners who have been members here for a long time, don't know each other.

More details about the directory will be coming very soon. Here are just a few. You'll be able to schedule an appointment online soon through our parish web site. Sign ups will also take place after Masses the weekends of August 1, 8 and 15. All those who have their picture taken will receive a free 8x10 and a directory. There's no obligation to purchase additional photos. Again, watch for details throughout the summer. I'll be talking about this often so that we hopefully have as many people as possible involved. So, get those smiles ready!

In Christ's peace,

Debbie

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

A feature of the Stewardship Committee

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord. 1 Cor. 12:4

Three Generations Making Music

A legacy of music lives on through three generations of parishioners. Damien Bissen, his daughter, Dawn, and grandson, Andrew, have music in their blood. Using his natural God-given talent, Damien's love of music led him from performing in Hawaii, around Wisconsin and Chicago, and eventually at St. Catherine.

Challenged by Fr. Baertlein's request to organize an adult choir, a growing music ministry developed at St. Catherine. As the choir director in the early years, Damien patiently encouraged choir members to feel and enjoy the musical harmony, to lift up their spirit and heart to the Lord in song. "Music is in my heart and I will sing until I die," says Damien. Though no longer directing the choir, Damien continues to be a choir member and cantor.

Daughter, Dawn Buege, follows in her father's footsteps as a cantor and choir member since high school. She considers her abilities a gift and most satisfying when she can use this gift to enrich the spiritual experiences of others. According to Dawn, the flexibility of the various musical ministries as well as the talent of music minister, Jim Stout, has reignited the direction of music at St. Catherine.

Dawn's son, Andrew, has been a member of the Children's Choir since its inception, enjoying not only the music and singing, but also the friendships made and the socialization. In Andrew's words, he "likes everything" about being in the choir.

Consider joining the Music Ministry at St. Catherine so you too can "Sing a New Song Unto the Lord".

ANNUAL PARISH PICNIC

The annual parish picnic will be held on Sunday, July 25th, following the 10:30 Mass. Archbishop Jerome Listecki will be joining us for the Mass. There will be a potluck lunch and entertainment will be provided by award winning folk singer David H. B. Drake. Sign up at church today and next weekend.
